Variations on a moving theme.

There exists a rare, almost musical moment when driver, car and road come together to create a fleeting but unforgettable experience. The 2019 Audi A4 family was engineered to deliver such moments with refined power fueled by unique TFSI® engine variants combined with available advanced driver assistance features and the capability of quattro® all-wheel drive.[1] Your choice between the Audi A4, A4 allroad® and S4 models just determines how.

Find a new way to confound your critics.

The intelligent yet unpretentious Audi A4 helps you exude a new type of confidence with a refined design aesthetic. Plus, Audi drive select and available Audi virtual cockpit help keep the driver informed and in command. Along with the intelligently applied power of the 2.0-liter TFSI® engine, the Audi A4 has the street smarts to make for a smart, connected drive.

S4

Playing the line between sport and luxury.

To be frank, with the Audi S4, there is no line. Audi engineers brought together fine premium materials and technologies like available diamond-stitched Fine Nappa leather and a twin-scroll turbocharged 3.0-liter TFSI® V6 engine to create the ultimate balanced drive. With distinctive Aluminum-optic exterior accents and an available quattro® sport rear differential, you have the agility and aesthetics to redefine your concept of sport luxury.

Harmonizing your path beyond the pavement.

There is a certain liberty in knowing that you can bring civilization with you when the tarmac turns to gravel. The Audi A4 allroad®, with its aluminum roof rails and fenders with rugged contrast cladding or available full-paint finish, helps give you self-assurance for the changing road ahead. Standard adaptive damping suspension and Audi drive select system with Offroad mode help make you feel at home even when you're far afield.[15]
