

JENSEN FF

It is a new look on... It is a new look on... from the classic sports performance of the Jensen FF to the luxury for city driving. The Jensen FF.

From quiet luxury drives are fine to fast city and country trip cars, but only from the perspective of a genuine step into the future, even for Jensen standards. The Jensen FF with its sophisticated 4 wheel drive and unique independent and disc braking system, double speed and safety in every phase. This is a car which can be driven to the full capabilities.

The Jensen FF opens a new era in driving - not an off-road, off-roading. Driving the Jensen FF is an absorbing experience. It gives the intense control, freedom and a new kind of confidence.
